CATHOLIC MEETING OPENS AT PITTSBURG

Large Gathering Opens With Attendance From All Parts of America and Europe.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 15.—The opening today of the first international congress of the Eucharistic League to be held in the United States was preceded by the celebration of high masses at mass in St. Paul's Cathedral. Mr.
Falconio, the papal delegate, was the celebrant. Cardinal Gibbons and nearly two score of archbishops and bishops were within the altar rails and the ceiling was filled with overflowing members of the Catholic clergy from all parts of America and from several of the countries of Europe.

This afternoon the opening session of the congress was held in the lecture hall of the Carnegie Institute.
Bishop Ames of Covington, Ky., who is at the head of the Eucharistic League in the United States, presided over the session. Bishop Canavin of Pittsburg spoke words of greeting.

The feature of the session was the reading of a personal letter from His Holiness, Pope Pius X., in which he sent his blessings and congratulations to those attending the great gathering.

The Eucharistic League, as its name indicates, has for its object the promotion of devotion to the holy eucharist. The central idea of the Roman Catholic Church is in the eucharist-- the living presence of Christ in the bread and wine on the altar. The eucharist is one of the seven sacraments of the church, and the most important. Out of it have grown the ritual, music, architecture of the church, and many peculiarities of Christian social life among Catholics.

The eucharist is longed for by every Roman Catholic church in the world, binding together the faithful of the parish in an organization whose object is to venerate God in the eucharist. The eucharistic league among the laity is the stepping stone to the eucharistic congress of the clergy. The priests' Eucharistic League of the United States was organized some years ago at Notre Dame, Ind., and has held national congresses at Washington, St. Louis and New York.

Religious services and business combine to make up the program for the three days of the present international congress. Prominent among those who are to present addresses or papers are Mr. Falconio, Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, Archbishop Farley of New York, Archbishop Messmer of Milwaukee, Bishop Guertin of Manchester, N. H., Bishop Horstmann of Cleveland, Bishop Richter of Grand Rapids, Bishop Ryan of Alton, the Rt.
Rev. Bernard Murphy, O. S. B., abbot of the Benedictine Abbey at Sacred Heart, Oklahoma; Mr. John Doyle, of Johnstown, Pa.; the very Rev. George de la Motte, S. J., the new superior general of the Rocky Mountain province of the Jesuit order; the Rev.
Emilbert M. Buchmann, of Louisville, Ky.; the Rev. John Potter, of St.
Bernard's Seminary, Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. Joseph Sellinger, of Jefferson City, Mo., and Rev. Father Vincent, of St. Michael's Basilica Monastery, at West Hoboken, N. J.

At the pontifical high mass in St.
Paul's Cathedral this morning the opening sermon was delivered by Bishop Kelley of Savannah. Mr.
Falconio was assisted in the celebration of the pontifical high mass by Bishop Canavin of Pittsburg and Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia.

PUBLISHERS WANT TO BE ON SAFE SIDE

Send Copy Of Objectionable Ads To Attorney General For His Opinion.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—The law enacted by the last legislature providing a penalty of $25 to $200 for publishing an improper advertisement in Wisconsin is causing newspaper proprietors to carefully consider the character of the advertising offered for their columns. Impulses are frequently made at the office of Attorney General Gilbert by publishers, who submit copies of the proposed advertisements. While it is not required of the attorney general to advise the publishers, he has, nevertheless, whenever time allowed without neglect of official business, informed the publishers whether or not the proposed advertisements would be allowed by the law. The latest ad to be banned is one headed "Free to You, My Sister." sheep raisers are sending their herds to northern Wisconsin in carloads to to send the sheep here at the begin-northern Wisconsin's rich grazing lands, but W. W. Wilson, who owns a large stock farm south of the city is receiving thousands of woolly animals for the winter. Mr. Wilson is a brother of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and a well known Chicago commission house man. The experiment,

OLD ACTOR REACHES AGE OF 75 YEARS

Denman Thompson, Veteran Theat-rian, Who Has Starred In "The Old Homestead" Has Good Fortune.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, Oct. 15.—Denman Thompson, the veteran actor, who during the past twenty years has been a familiar figure to audiences throughout his country as Uncle Joshua Whitcomb, in "The Old Homestead," entered upon his seventy-fifth year today and was the recipient of a flood of congratulations from members of the theatrical profession and from other friends and admirers throughout the country. He is now playing at the Academy of Music in this city. It is a farewell engagement, for the age and failing health of the veteran actor will make his permanent retirement from the stage imperative after the close of the present season.

For more than half a century Mr.
Thompson has been before the public and for nearly twenty years his name has been connected with "The Old Homestead." Rugged and strong he has carried his years well, though twice in late years illness has forced him to take a rest and return to the quiet of his New Hampshire home.

Mr. Thompson was born in Erie county, Pennsylvania, in 1832, his parents having gone there from New Hampshire. When he was fourteen years old the family returned to Swansea, N. H., and there Denman attended school and worked at carpentry.
In the spring of 1850 he went to Boston and joined a small circus as property boy, subsequently developing into an acrobat.

His first appearance on the stage was as a "super" with Charlotte Chushman at the Howard Athenaeum, Boston. He first secured a speaking part in Lowell in 1852, when he played in "The French Spy." He then became an itinerant actor, playing low comedies, and in 1854 went to the Royal Lyceum Theatre, Toronto, where he remained until 1868.

In Toronto Mr. Thompson won local favor as Stearns Sandler and Uncle Tom. During the spring of 1862 he played in London with moderate success, and in 1871 he began in variety theatres, appearing in character parts.
At Harry Martin's Varieties, in Pittsburg, he first appeared in 1875 as Uncle Joshua Whitcomb, in a one-act piece of that name which he wrote.

When the necessity for a successor to "Uncle Josh" became apparent, in 1885, Thompson and a friend wrote "The Old Homestead" in fifteen days.
It was produced at the Boston Theatre in April, 1885, and then brought to the Academy of Music in this city. In this play he has appeared almost continuously ever since and has realized from it a large fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Archer are the parents of a baby boy, born this morning at their Park street home.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Black River Falls, Wis., Oct. 15.— Disbursing Agent Best, assistant to the Indian agent here, is receiving num-agents in the northwest regarding his plan of withholding government funds from intoxicated Indians at the regumined to stop intoxication among the red men. Saloonkeepers are no longer responsible for selling liquor to Indians under the federal court ruling, which places red and white men on a par as far as saloons go.

PATHETIC STORY OF YOUNG BOY THIEF

Boy Who Does Not Know His Own Family Is Sentenced to Green Bay Reformatory For Theft.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—A pathetic life story was brought out in the elderly court when George Humes was sentenced to the Green Bay reformatory for two and one-half years for robbery. Humes' hardware store of $250 worth of merchandise.

Humes said he lived at New London and that his father, named Breckenridge, died when he was a baby. He was adopted by a family named Humes, but the foster father died shortly afterward and the boy went out into the world alone and unguided.
His own mother and sisters are strangers to him. He knows not where they are. Judge Parish was affected by the story, and made the sentence light.
Humes is not yet 21 years old, but he has had the experience of a man of sixty.

MORRIS HEIRS BREAK WILL.

Widow and Four Children Agree to Divide $30,000,000.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—A $30,000,000 will contest that was argued and settled out of court was disclosed Monday when the last testament of Nelson Morris, the pucker, was filed for probate.

As a result of this remarkable situation the principal provision of the will has been nullified. Instead of carrying out an arrangement which would have held the bulk of the estate in trust for at least 15 years the widow and her four children will divide the property equally among themselves at once. Instead of $500,000 and an annuity of $15,000 during the next 20 years each of the five principal heirs will receive at once $30,000,000 in cash and securities.

CITY FATHERS IN SESSION

Last Evening Listened to Reports from Several Departments and Transacted Considerable Important Business.

Crushed stone may be used in rebuilding any highway, though a ward fund may never be drawn upon to place a thoroughfare in a condition better than its original state. Reports, according to the special charter of the city, are defined as whatever may be necessary to traffic, having regard to the original character of the road.
City Attorney H. L. Maxfield, responding to a special request of several of the aldermen, filed an opinion on the subject last evening. He placed a consideration on this definition of repairs, somewhat broader than the one held by his predecessors, and found nothing therein which forbade the use of crushed stone in filling holes or even re-surfacing under the conditions outlined. A street improvement, the expense of which may be borne either by the city or the abutting property owners, was held to be the building of a highway or the placing of said highway in a condition better than its original state. The opinion was accepted and placed on file.

Reports of Departments

Reports from the several departments of the city were received and disposed of in the customary manner.
The board of education's accounting for September showed that orders totaling $3,575.67 had been drawn. The municipal court report for the same month showed that fines amounting to $167, penalties amounting to $78, fees aggregating $23.80, and city marshall's fees totaling $3.70 were collected.
Supt. George T. Croft of the stone crusher reported that 225 yards of finished material were delivered during the two weeks ending Oct. 12. The assistant street commissioner made recommendations regarding new walks needed and the same were ordered built. City Treasurer James A. Father detailed the condition of the city's finances for the month ending Sept.
30. The finance committee filed its usual schedule of bills. The street department committee announced the proposals received for grading Logan street from Duane street to Forest park boulevard and the judiciary committee found the bonds of Lynn, Mc-Minnis & Plafey, who are to undertake the work, in due form and satisfied.

Police Station Records

City Marshal W. H. Appleby's reports for the months of August and September were received. During August there were 91 arrests; 2 for hold-up; 7 for assault and battery; 3 for violation of city ordinance; and 24 for drunkenness. Twenty-six of the individuals taken into custody were taken to court and 48 were discharged.
Stolen money amounting to $245 was recovered and returned to owners. The arrests were credited as follows: Appleby, 11; Brown, 11; De-neke, 10; Drigham, 12; Chapman, 12; Mason, 12; Morrissey, 10; and Panning, 15.

During September the total of arrests was 119; six for larceny; 7 for violation of city ordinance; 3 for hold-up; 8 for assault and battery; and 95 for all other offenses. Thirty-four were taken to court and 85 discharged. The arrests were credited as follows: Appleby, 11; Brown, 12; Drigham, 12; Deke, 11; Chapman, 12; Panning, 16; Mason, 23; and Morrissey, 15.

Magnolia Ave. Sewer Extension

The cost of the extension of the sewer on Magnolia avenue for a distance of 623 feet was shown to have been $1,198.99, or $1,924.12 per linear foot, by a report submitted by the street assessment committee and aldermen of the ward. Materials used included 16871 barrels of cement at $2 per barrel and 170 loads of gravel which the city purchased of Mrs. A. M.
Mole at 2 cents a load. J. H. Watson had charge of the work and the labor item amounted to $70.95. Owing to the exceptionally low cost of the work the extension was carried a greater distance than originally intended.

Saloon License Transfers

Permission was given James E.
Hemming to transfer his license for the Riverside hotel bar at 69 South Elver street to Charles Wilman of Edgerton, and to Fred H. Jones to transfer his license for the bar at the Hotel London, 23 East Milwaukee street, to W. M. Wells. The bonds of the new proprietors were accepted.
The bond of M. Goldfish as a license and junk-dealer was also found in due form and accepted.

May Buy New Road-Roller

Through Charles Sprackling of the J. I. Case Co., a proposition was submitted to the city for furnishing a 14-ton Case steam roller and accepting the 15-ton Buffalo Pits now owned by the municipality. In partial exchange, "The City Fathers were not ready to make a purchase, outright, at this time and conversed with Mr.
Sprackling with regard to the possibility of renting a machine for the balance of the season, the rental to apply on the purchase price in cash if the machine was not desired to buy. He was unable to say just what the firm's attitude towards this proposition would be, but promised to return an mediate services of a roller, the highway council to act according to their best Rine concern.

Another Four-foot Walk

P. H. Korst and H. J. Cunningham, owners of all the property on the west side of South Division street between Clark street and Home park avenue, filed a petition for permission to build a four-foot walk and curb on their side of the said thoroughfare, citing an arrangement in their favor the fact that the city had already granted the same to the owner of the land on the opposite side of the street. The introduction by Ald. Brown of an order directing that such permission be granted, entailed some little discussion.
Ald. Morrill said that he would like to have them make it 1½ feet. Ald.
Duff wanted to know if the two petitioners were able to get by one another. Ald. Shotton said that he was opposed to four-foot walks as a general thing but that inasmuch as the city had been saved a damage suit for granting work by granting this privilege to the owner of the land across the way, and for the sake of uniformity—the street being only about 100 feet long, anyway—he would be in favor of granting the request. Ald.
Clark said that it might be alright to make an exception in this individual instance, but that the people on Lincoln avenue, near his home, who had built 4-foot walks were all sorry that they had done so and he thought that the council ought to vote against the proposition after this. Mayor Heides said that the aldermen were all against 4-foot walks but their clients succeeded in trotting one in every week or two. The order was passed.
Aldermen Morrill and Jones voting in the negative.

Walks and Crosswalks

Street Commissioner James Schmitt was directed by an order to have the city sidewalk contractor, B. P. Crossman, lay a cement walk in front of the Grant school property on Pleasant and Palm streets to clean the gutters on Grand avenue and at the western end of Eastern avenue, and at the intersection of N. Hickory and Walker streets; and to build brick crosswalks in the following localities: across Lincoln street on the east side of N. Hickory; across N. Huff street on the north side of Fourth avenue; across Carlington on the east side of S. Main; across Madison avenue on the west side of S. Main; across S. High on the south side of School street; across Galena on the east side of S. High; across S. Franklin on the north side of Rock street; across Vista avenue on the east side of Logan avenue; across Conifer Place on the west side of Garfield avenue, South.

"The city clerk was directed to draw up the city treasury for the sum of $1,125 in favor of "The Municipality," the same being the city's dues to the League of American Municipalities for fifteen copies of the above mentioned magazine.

All the aldermen were present at the session. Owing to their occupancy of rear pews, the attendance of Aldermen Morrill and Buchholz at a special church service Sunday evening was overlooked in the listing of "those present," yesterday. Due, it belated, credit is hereby given.

"CUPID AT VASSAR"

ONLY STAGE FUDGE

College Atmosphere Is Too Much Broadway—Florence Gear a Good Ginger and Impersonator.

Everything goes, as the saying is, in a musical play. Hence it is perhaps unfair to complain that there is more footlight than college atmosphere in "Cupid at Vassar." Impersonations by the star of May Irwin's comedy, Lillian Russell, and "The Rich Mr. Hoggenheimer," a French song with elaborate accompaniment—"That's How I Love You"—and the dance of a blackface minstrel and a boy of Panama girls are features which are allowed to overshadow the basket-ball game and even the beautiful ceremony of the Daisy-Chain. There is but one important player's part and but one singing role, and both are taken by Miss Florence Gear. All the others are completely "fagged." Just as in Mary Trevel's recent vehicles, The star is equal to all emergencies, except that of seeming to be a demure and lovable little college girl when the exotic and highly theatrical specialties are done with and the playwright returns again to the sentimental strain. She is an accomplished vocalist and her topical songs, introduced apropos of nothing, please the audience. That is the main fault of the piece—the apropos of nothing. So hegulus and so ends the realistic but too brief basket-ball game, which ought to belong in the play and have something vital to do with the plot. Some of the songs and stage pictures are catchy and the chorus is fairly adequate in the number, "Dear Daisy-Chain." The audience at the Myers theatre last night was not a large one.

One Workman Killed and Many Injured at Stony Ford, N. Y.

Middletown, N. Y., Oct. 15.—One man was killed, five others were probably fatally hurt and six or eight were badly injured Monday when 17 cars of a worktrain crashed through a trestle on the New York & Jersey railway at Stony Ford, near here. The cars were loaded with dirt and stone, and 20 Austrian laborers who were on them went down with them to the bottom of the ravine, 80 feet below.

The engineer felt the trestle giving and, putting on full speed, succeeded in getting across with his engine and one car. The coupling with the second car broke and all the rest of the train went into the ravine.

THE GOOD AND THE BAD

In reading his McKinley oration at Canton, President Roosevelt came to the passage:

"It would be a cruel disaster to this country to permit ourselves to adopt an attitude of hatred and envy toward success worthily won, toward wealth honestly acquired."

This sentence was received in dead silence.

Then the President went on to speak of the dishonest businessmen and of the "chicanery and wrongdoing which are peculiarly repulsive when exhibited by men who have no excuse of want, of poverty, or ignorance, for their crimes."

The crowd listening applauded generously when the President raised his hand and stopped the applause and said that he would not permit them to cheer that statement unless they also applauded the one that had gone before, and he went back and reread the sentence in regard to success worthily won and wealth honestly acquired. Thus admonished, the crowd applauded this statement.

This incident, says the Wall Street Journal, illustrates vividly the fact that the multitudes are eager to applaud denunciations of wrongdoing and wrongdoing, but have no particular enthusiasm over praise of the good and the right. It is this trait of human nature that is responsible for the fact that our general newspapers make such parade of the crime, the corruption, the villainy of men, and put into comparatively small space, or ignore altogether, the honest achievements of high finance.

Thus it is that we get a distorted view of actual conditions. It is important to note this fact at this time when we are having a series of disclosures of wrongdoing in high finance. There is a great parade of the evidence and a great outcry from the people, all of which is proper enough, but as there is comparatively little said regarding the honest and beneficent achievements of high finance, there is no true sense of proportion, only a distorted view of facts.

The fact is that the good greatly outweighs the bad. This is as true in the region of high finance as it is in every other field of endeavor. We hear of the thousands of divorcees, but we hear nothing of the millions of contented marriages. We hear of the defalcations, but nothing of the magnificent accounting to the penny for millions of dollars by thousands of honest men. We hear of the betrayals of trust, but nothing is said of the absolute fidelity to contracts and to oral promises by the great body of businessmen. We hear of the crooked management of corporations, but nothing is said of the fact that the vast multitude of our corporations are faithfully, economically and honestly administered in the interest of their stockholders and without detriment to the public.

The public service commission is performing a good work in its investigation of the New York traction situation. The facts should be made known. The facts should be made known and those responsible for the misdeeds should be made to feel the weight of public opinion and receive the punishment which the law provides for their offenses. But let us not fall into the error of believing that such misdeeds characterize the entire business of the country, and in applauding the exposure of wrong, let us not forget to think of and commend the splendid fidelity to truth and honesty which is characteristic of American business as a whole.

The audience which the President addressed at Canton was an intelligent American audience assembled to pay homage to the memory of a martyred president. It was not a socialist crowd, nor a gathering of discontented laborers, and yet it was silent in endorsing a sentiment which is vital to the well-being of the nation.

This was an ominous silence, and the President recognized it. More ominous still is the fact that the little audience at Canton represented popular sentiment throughout the country. There never was a time when wealth, especially corporate wealth, was more generally hated than today. This hatred is not confined to men who never possessed a dollar, but is shared by people in moderate circumstances.

If this expression in legislative assemblies and results in laws which practically amount to confiscation of property, this sentiment is so strong in some of the southern states, that freight schedules on all classes of merchandise have been prepared by state tax commissions and the railroads compelled to adopt them.

In Georgia these revised schedules meant a loss of $2,000,000 to the railroads of the state, with no saving to the people, as is shown by the advance prices of goods.

President Roosevelt may well hesitate when confronted with a silence which represents active force at work all over the land, and which are as dangerous as active. It is time to call a halt on aggressiveness which threatens destruction.

THE AMERICAN PAY-ROLL

The American pay-roll attracts one million foreigners to our shores every year, and but few of them ever return to the "fatherland" to abide.

It is the largest and best distributed pay-roll in the world, and through its agency every man who will, may secure a home and a competency.

Through it the necessities and many of the luxuries of life are provided, and the ambition of every thoughtful man should be to keep it intact.

Much discussion is going on just now concerning a revision of the tariff and the fact is frequently overlooked that protection is the keynote of the American pay-roll.

There is no question but that some overprotected industries have developed monopolies that are more or less burdensome. If these could be regulated without disturbing the entire fabric, it would be a good thing for the country, but experience has demonstrated that this can not be done.

Tariff revision means destruction of confidence, not only in one, but in every industry. This means silent factories and enforced idleness to an army of American workmen, and the complete demoralization of the American pay-roll.

The question to be considered is, is it worth the price? It matters not how cheap commodities are, the question of supreme importance is, has the buying public employment at good wages? Goods are high at any price to the man out of money.

The standard of the American pay-roll may be too high, as it is in some cases, but there is a better way to regulate it, than to destroy it entirely.

President Smith, of the telegraphers' union, has declared the strike off, and after two months of idleness the men will attempt to secure their old positions. The strike was ill-advised in the first place, and the men have gained nothing.

Parental Care.

A learned professor was left at home alone one evening with the children. His wife knew he was at work upon an abstract article, and so, though she dreaded his absent-mindedness, she thought it would be safe to trust him by himself for once. When she returned the house was very still. She had left the children playing, but now they were nowhere to be seen. She asked what had become of them, and the professor said that their noise had disturbed him and he had put them to bed. "I hope they gave you no trouble," she said. "One did," the professor answered. "The one in the cot there fought like a young lion when I went to undress him. He kicked and screamed and bit. A beautiful fellow, I got him in, though, and fast. He howled awhile, but in an hour he fell asleep." The professor's wife tipped over to the cot. "Why," she cried, "that is little Tommy White from next door!"—Exchange.

PRESS COMMENT

Depth Not Yet Reached
Chicago Record-Herald: "Progress" has been dramatized, but nobody has seen it as yet to tackle "Paradise Lost."

Ever Since 1492
Evening Wisconsin: Milwaukee Indians, celebrating the 12th of October, as Columbus day, feel that men of their race are not strangers in the land.

Sounds Rather Forceful

Madison Journal: "There is so much of good in the worst of us, and so much of bad in the best of us," let us say to ourselves as we think of the passing of Cassius M. Chase.

Wasn't Shooting That Kind, Mebbe
La Crosse Tribune: Dr. Long shot a wicked one at President Roosevelt when he pointed out that the president hunted bear last year when the old bears were mothering their young.

So Cut Out "Thru," Etc.
Chicago Tribune: A few persistent but misguided contemporaries need to be reminded that President Roosevelt, when he saw how unpopular the spelling "reform" was, gracefully ducked.

Auto Co.'s Costly Oversight Madison Democrat: The Pope automobile company advertised not in the newspapers but in magazines—a fact which perhaps tends somewhat to explain the circumstance of its sensational failure.

Not Without Good Reason Chicago News: Gov. Hughes is said to have an idea that District Attorney Jerome is lukewarm in the New York traction graft matter. Did you ever see such a suspicious person as that man Hughes?

Has Real Oshkoshian Flavor

Milwaukee Journal: The Eau Claire Leader has a funny man who furnishes this evidence that he came from Oshkosh: "A Beauty Girl—A straight flush against four aces in an excellent skin boat."

Gently But Firmly—Not

Chicago Inter-Ocean: Japan is very desirous that we shall become her ally. We will be compelled to inform Japan, as we are compelled to inform all other applicants, even one that is dear to us by every tie, that we are forming no alliances whatsoever.

There Is Always a Remedy

Oshkosh Northwestern: If the price of butter continues to soar the time may come when the people of this country will demand that the tax on oleomargarine be repealed in order to encourage a little healthy competition in this particular branch of trade.

Why Mention It at All

Oshkosh Northwestern: It seems that former Oshkosh girl who is featured in a series of sensational thefts at Chicago, was found to carry a loaded revolver attached to one of her garters. But of course it is hardly necessary to add that this is a habit that is not generally followed by the girls of this city.

Learned It from the "Fra"

Madison Journal: It is the widely advertised view of Mrs. Elbert Hubbard, wife of Fra Elbertus, that the race is gradually getting back to simpler clothing, and that a period near the millennium will see us all dressed in the garb which was in vogue before the fall. Frau Elbertus has the family traits all right.

The Best Modern Dodge

Marquette Eagle-Star: The wealthy relatives of Mrs. Chas. Romulka are now trying to screen her under the claim of insanity. The arrest of any wealthy person, publicly guilty of a crime, seldom fails to bring forth the insanity defense. Mrs. Romulka is probably a degenerate, and if she is, she ought to be where the public will be protected from her machinations.

Carrying Conclusions Too Far.

Eau Claire Telegram: The minister who is reported to have said at Fond du Lac that nine-tenths of the criminals now in prison took their first steps in wrongdoing when they went to baseball games on Sunday. If correctly quoted, didn't leave much for other supposed agencies of Satan to be blamed for. Such statements may cause some who go to church to pray to come away and scoff.

Washington Was Only Human.

And the Lac Reporter: Now they say there is official documentary proof that George Washington not only knew how to lie, but that he was a tax dodger as well. While this no doubt will be consoling to modern flax and tax dodgers it doesn't justify their sins. We are not disappointed to know that George Washington was human, but there is no necessity of making his faults an excuse for those of the present generation.

Oklahoma a "Hefty" Baby

Cleveland Plain Dealer: The territorial extent of Oklahoma is as great as that of Ohio and Indiana combined—about 70,000 square miles. The taxable property is over $500,000,000. The prosperity of this new country is indicated by $75,000,000 of bank deposits. This showing is remarkable from the fact that savings are slow in accumulating in a new region that demands a vast amount of capital for its development. This prosperity, moreover, is not based on a reckless exploitation of natural resources, such as timber, or metal mines. It is due almost entirely to solid agricultural and industrial development. The state has 5,000 miles of railroads, tapping vast deposits of undeveloped coal, lead, zinc, granite and oil. The coal lands are already producing 2,000,000 tons a year. One million four hundred thousand acres of land have been set aside for school purposes, valued now at $57,000,000, and the federal government has added to this $5,000,000 to provide for the Indian schools.

The moral tone of Oklahoma is shown by its prohibition of the liquor traffic. Its intellectual average is as high as to shame some of the oldest and custom states. Taken altogether, there is no reason why the most jealous champion of traditional standards of citizenship and statehood should scorn the claims of Oklahoma.

WINIFRED FIFIELD SUIT IS BEFORE SUPREME COURT

Plaintiff's Attorneys Must Show Cause Today Why $25,000 Damage Action Against Street Car Co. Should Not Have Been Dismissed.

Judge Charles L. Fifield and Atty. M. G. J. J. are presenting arguments before the supreme court at Madison today in response to a writ of mandamus from that body directing the interested parties to appear on this date and show cause why the $25,000 damage action of Winifred Fifield vs. the Milwaukee Electric Light & Railways Co. should not have been dismissed by Judge Graham in circuit court on account of the alleged improper service of the complaint.

The suit, it will be recalled, was the outcome of injuries sustained by the plaintiff in a collision of a train and a street-car in the metropolis nearly two years ago. Action was not commenced until within less than twenty days of the expiration of the one year after date of the accident, allowed by law for the service of the complaint in a proceeding of this kind. The Street Car Co. had twenty days to respond and only after that time had elapsed was it learned that the corporation regarded the service of the legal documents on the assistant secretary as null and void, such officer not being designated by the statutes as a proper person for such service.

Attorneys for the plaintiff at once called the court's attention to the fact that if the party in question was indeed the assistant secretary, they had been given every reason to believe that he was the real secretary; that he had been performing the work of secretary; and that the same company had repeatedly gone to trial without question, in the past, in cases where the notices had been similarly served; Judge Graham denied the motion to dismiss the suit.

From this decision the attorneys for the traction company appealed to the state court, but subsequently, finding that the mandamus proceeding was more efficacious and less costly, asked that the appeal be dismissed, and substituted the mandamus measure. In case the supreme body does not uphold Judge Graham's decision, the possibility of instituting any new action against the Street Car Co., though the St. Paul Co., which is co-defendant, will still stand liable. It is understood, however, that the Street Car Co. was mostly if not entirely blame for the accident. The showing of Milwaukee who served the papers, will also be considered by a decision of the high tribunal that the papers were improperly served.

SUNDAY A GREAT DAY ON THE RIVER

Launch-Owners Were All Out Enjoying Final Scenes of Autumn Festival Sunday.

The muskrats are building their houses high and thick; Jack Frost, the master painter, has bespattered the trees and the bushes which line the ledges with his most gorgeous colors; autumn is scampering away with the hickory nuts and acorns and the songbirds are singing and swinging in long processions high above their old haunts. And these scenes of the autumn festival and canoe and rowboat and song fifty or more gasoline launches were plying Sunday. The very newest boat is Edmund Ellinger's smart, little 7 horse power craft, built at Fond du Lac and fitted out with a natty automobile top. "Commodore" George McKay, A. E. Hingman, and others explored the hills in search of puff-balls and incidentally looked over an island and one high embankment with a view to locating a possible camping place next summer. Reg-ester of Deeds Charles Weidner, Clerk of Court Joseph Earle and others made a trip to Indian Ford; Harry Nowlin's speedy motorboat left a white string of the slower ones in its billowy wake.

Meet on Wednesday: The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Wm. Herrell, 57 North High street, Wednesday evening at 7:30. An interesting program has been prepared in "The Law of Kindness." Rev. J. L. Meads will be the principal speaker, and there will be readings by Mrs. Mary Kimball, recitations by Howard Miller and William H. Hill, and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Meads. Men, women and children are cordially invited.

Is interested: The Gazette has received several interesting communications relative to the plan to deepen the Rock river between this city and Sterling, Ill., establish locks around the dams and open it to traffic from the Mississippi. One writer suggests that instead of going down the river to go up and pass through the Madison lakes and then have a little canal dug to the Wisconsin and thence into the Mississippi.

You will be interested that the two TOWARD watches sent out for the Geneva Observatory test were both successful in securing a certificate for the accuracy of their performance, the variation during 30 days' trial being only 21-100 seconds.

These are the only American watches that ever passed the Geneva Observatory test requirements and is a remarkable commendation for the HOWE and watch.

We warn the man or woman who has a comfortable account in the bank against drawing that money for questionable investment enterprises. When you buy stocks or other securities from a stranger you are running a risk and besides you are paying a price that means good profit to the seller. Good bargains don't go begging.

Limitations of Wealth. Money cannot buy health, peace of mind and happiness. This is an era of large fortunes and of reckless extravagance, but the price of all possessions for a well-ordered, happy, satisfying life is still beyond the purses of those who imagine that they constitute "wealth," and who themselves are beyond the power of moral disinfectants.—Washington Times.

Spasms St. Vitus' Dance

Many persons who suffered untold agonies from epilepsy, fits, spasms, and St. Vitus' Dance are today well. The strengthening influence of Dr. Miles' Nervine upon the shattered nerves having restored them to perfect health.

"I endured agony that words cannot express from St. Vitus' dance, which followed a very severe spell of rheumatism. I desisted with a physician, but the more I rested the more I ached. My mother's devotion saved me. After she had become almost heart-broken, as well as physically exhausted from constant care, by the advice of a neighbor who prescribed the first dose of Dr. Miles' Nervine. From the first dose to the last a continual change for the better was noticeable, and when I had taken eleven bottles I was well, and in robust health."

EDWARD D. BEAM, North Manchester, Indiana.

"Our little boy Harvey, had spasms for three years, and although we doctored with many physicians, he continued to grow worse until he had ten spasms in one week. About that time our attention was called to Dr. Miles' Nervine. We began giving it to him.

The improvement seemed slow, but when he had finished the fourth bottle the spasms had disappeared, and have not been seen now for years. We shall always recommend Dr. Miles' Nervine."

MRS. ELLIE M. TINDALL, Hastings, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, red or dusky facial spots or speckles flowing or drenching before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy toll feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weakness of the female system, and needs your early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases may run into melancholia with delusions. The surgeon's knife if they do not respond fatally.

No medicine except has such a long and unbroken record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Great Peppermint Cure. No medicine has such a strong medicinal influence upon the blood and its various elements—worth more than any number of pills—has been so long known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is taken, or the use of it is entirely dispensed with. On each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach, bowels and nervous system become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be spared.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held in strictest privacy and successfully treated.

RACE RIOT IN 'FRISCO.

Mob Headed by Drunken Men Fight Japanese in Laundry.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—As a result of an attack on a Japanese laundry Monday night, the proprietor and one of his employees are in the emergency hospital, many whites are nursing bruises caused by the clubs of the police and the exterior of the laundry is a wreck.

The trouble was occasioned by Joseph King, an intoxicated logger, who crashed into the window of the laundry conducted by Umekubo, at 422 Fell street. The proprietor and Omura rushed out and dragged King into a rear room, and went to summon the police. Three intoxicated companions of King planned to rescue their friend. Other whites were called in and there followed a combined attack on the laundry. The street was soon filled by a large crowd, and a dozen Japanese on the inside sought to repel the invaders.

Policeman Thomas Collier attacked the crowd single-handed. Another officer soon arrived in an automobile and the riot end which was sounded brought strong reinforcements. The police charged the crowd with clubs, and many were hit.

Many Hurt in "L" Road Collision.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Nineteen persons were hurt Monday in a rear end collision on the elevated loop at State and Van Buren streets. A Douglas Park train crashed into and partly destroyed the rear coach of a South Side train standing at the station, creating a panic among the passengers, many of whom were hurt.
